

Kayla Pratt

2005-2009

Kayla Pratt started rowing with Epsom Rowing Club in 2006 and has had many successes throughout her rowing career so far. Kayla has achieved her goals through plenty of hard work, perseverance and stick ability.

After achieving good results at Maadi Cup during high school, Kayla had a desire to do even better and kept training hard which enabled her to be selected for different rowing teams.

Some of Kayla's greatest successes are Gold in the Under 23 Women's Pair in 2012, Gold in the Women's Four in 2014 with a world record time, Silver in the Women's Eight in 2015. Aside from the above, Kayla's proudest success was making the Olympic Team for Rio 2016 where she competed as part of the New Zealand Women's Eight.

"If you want it, train for it."
